Return To Sports Car Racing As It Was In the '50s At Historic Put-in-Bay, Ohio

For 1930s - 1972 production cars up to 3.0L, sports racers up to 2.0 Liters and others

This relaxed and nostalgic event, at Put-in-Bay on Ohio's South Bass Island, includes:

- Two days of racing (Monday afternoon 8/31 and all day Tuesday 9/1) on re-paved and expanded 1.2 mile airport course
- Immersion in '50s - early '60s Put-in-Bay sports car racing history
- Entry options for both racing- and non-racing vintage sports cars
- "Featured Marque" status for MGs and Turners
- Original course and airport track touring
- Social events, car show, rocker cover races and more guaranteed fun than any other vintage racing event (or so our past participants say)
